Reasons for Recommendation/Additional Notes:

On 01/26/2021, Pappas posted bail and was released from Marion County Jail. As part of his bail, Judge Geyer directed Pappas to report to Pretrial Release before 02/01/2021.

On 01/29/2021, Pappas reported to the Pretrial Release Office and a Pretrial Release interview/orientation was conducted at that time. Pappas stated that he has stable housing away from the listed victims, residing in Astoria, OR. In addition, Pappas was able to provide an active phone number to maintain contact with the Pretrial Release Office.

Based on Pappas' PSC score, and the classification of his charges, I recommend his entry into the Pretrial Release Program on high monitoring. Pappas acknowledged that, as part of the program, he will be obligated to follow all conditions of release; including contacting the Pretrial Release Office every other week.

Pretrial Services Supervisor:

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS FOR SPECIFIC OFFENSES

DUII	No consumption of alcohol; No entry into taverns, bars or liquor stores; No driving without license, insurance, and, if DMV required, ignition interlock device (IID).
Domestic Violence or crime against another person:	No contact with victim directly, indirectly or through a third party; No entry onto premises, business or other location occupied by the victim; No coming into the visual or physical presence of the victim; No sending or making communication with the victim, including in writing, by phone, computer, text, email or any other means; No waiting or driving by the outside of the home, property, place of work or school of the victim or a member or their immediate family or household; No possession or access to firearms or other deadly weapons;
Any sex offense (if relevant to allegations)	No contact with minors; No entry into areas where minors are commonly present – schools, parks, churches, playgrounds, or similar places.

LEVELS OF MONITORING

Limited	No active monitoring. Pretrial Case Aide (PCA) monitors compliance of conditions imposed per statute 135.250, by the Court and next court appearance. PCA will investigate community or police complaints regarding potential violations.
Low	Required to check in with PCA ≥ once per month + other conditions related to crimes.
Medium	Required to check in with PCA ≥ 2 times per month + other conditions related to crimes.
High	Required to check in with PCA ≥ 1 time per week and submit to random UAs, Curfews, GPS, Guardian &/or other conditions imposed by the Court.

Pretrial Release Factors

Maximize Release, Maximize Court Appearance, Maximize Public Safety

Primary Factors	Reasonable protection of the victim or public, the nature of the current charge and any facts tending to indicate the defendant is likely to appear.
Secondary Factors	Employment status and history, nature and present residences and any other facts tending to indicate the defendant has strong ties to the community.
Third Party Release	Release may be facilitated by responsible person(s) who agree to assist the defendant in attending court at the proper time and/or otherwise promote stability pretrial.

RELEASE CONSIDERATIONS

Releasable offenses under ORS 135.240: All defendants are presumed to be releasable pending trial or hearing except when the defendant is charged with murder, aggravated murder or treason.

Defendants charged with M11 offenses under ORS 137.700 and 137.707 shall require a security amount not less than $50,000.

Defendants charged with a violent felony, release shall be denied when the court finds:

Except when the defendant is charged by indictment, that there is probably cause to believe that the defendant committed the crime; and

By clear and convincing evidence, that there is a danger of physical or sexual victimization of the victim or members of the public by the defendant while on release.
